“This is what I can do today to help create the school we want.”

We can think of these collective commitments as a series of “if-then” statements.

Ex: If we are to be a school that ensures high levels of learning for all students, then we must commit to monitor each student’s learning on a timely basis using a variety of assessment strategies.

Ex: If we are to create a collaborative culture, then we must commit to be positive, contributing members to our collaborative teams and accept collective responsibility for the success of our colleagues and our students.

Form “if-then” statements regarding the three areas of emphasis in the table below.
